In default to pay the amount or execute the agreement, the amount already paid by him will be forfeited, the contract cancelled and the right resold, the defaulter being liable for any deficit of the original sale amount. He shall have no claim to any surplus accruing from such resale but shall be liable for the loss arising therefrom which will be recovered as an arrear of land revenue.

4. Each bidder should see the trees before auction and satisfy himself and any complaint received thereafter regarding the produce will not be entertained.

5. The contractor should make his own arrangements for the proper guarding of the trees immediately his offer is accepted and no complaint in case of theft, etc., will be entertained and no compensation whatsoever will be paid thereof.

6. Any damage done to Government property should be made good by him.

7. The contract should not be sublet or transferred.

8. Withdrawal of bid or lodging dispute of any kind will not be entertained when once the bid is offered in the open auction.

9. The decision of the Director of Animal Husbandry Services is final in all matters of dispute and legally binding on the bidders.

10. Permission will be granted for collection of Hippe produce of 1951-52 during summer season of 1952 when only it will be available for collection.
